Data Protection Notice

Amateur Martial Associations endeavours to summarise the purposes for which your personal data will be processed (by AMA and your Association) when collecting your personal data from you for registration and related purposes.

This notice is simply to provide further details about the way in which AMA may process any sensitive personal data relating to you.

Ethnicity data.

If collected from you, this will be used to identify and keep under review, equality of opportunity at AMA, within the sport, and (anonymously) for statistical and reporting purposes.

Disability data.

If collected from you, this will be used to identify and keep under review equality of opportunity at AMA and (anonymously) for statistical and reporting purposes.

Injuries data.

If collected from you, AMA may collect this directly from you or via your Association or club. It will be used (anonymously) for statistical and reporting purposes and may be used in connection with any subsequent legal claims.

Data Barring Service data.

AMA is registered with the Data Barring Service via DDC, to assist it in the safeguarding of children and ensuring that those who take up appointments do not pose any risk to the children within its care. AMA may therefore process criminal records data disclosed by the DBS. This will be processed in accordance with the DBS Code of Practice for Registered Persons.

Anti-Doping Data

This data, may be collected from you, by the AMA, either through a Therapeutic Use Exemption (TUE) application or through sample collection and analysis, if you are within your Martial Arts national registered testing pool. It will be used for the purpose of administering AMA anti-doping programme and may be used by AMA (or any other organisations involved in doping control) for the purposes of any disciplinary proceedings brought against you for anti-doping rule violation. Your data (including medical data) may be passed to UK Sport and other organisations or individuals involved in the administration of the doping control process or concerned with the results of that process.

Welfare & Child Protection-Poor Practice Data

This may be collected by AMA, directly from you, via your Association or club or, by some other means of communication e.g. telephone or email.
It will be used for the purpose of assisting in the process of any Social Services, Police investigation which may or may not result in court proceedings.
This data may also be used in any or subsequent discipline inquiry or hearing conducted by AMA.
Your data may be passed on to other organisations or individuals involved in the administration of Criminal Justice, Welfare, Child Protection and /or welfare of children or concerned with the results of those processes.
